A Virtual Conference

“The one where COVID—19 sent our research into quarantine.”

What is it?...

This is a free, virtual conference that highlights the best that USCL and Palmetto College has to offer. The conference will be composed of 4 categories showcasing all forms of scholarly work.

Where is it?

On your favorite social media app! Follow us on Instagram and Facebook and Subscribe to our YouTube page to learn more about research and the opportunities on the Palmetto College Campuses.

When is it?...

We will be releasing presentations weekly starting in November 2020 through April 2021. This “conference” gives you the opportunity to participate asynchronously from your preferred location and on your own time.

Why should you participate?...

This event gives us a way to be more connected and to learn a little bit about research and all the amazing faculty, staff, and students on the Palmetto College Campuses.

Plus, we are planning to do fun giveaways associated with our social media accounts, so you won't want to miss out.
