Professional Positions

- Distinguished Guest Professor at Ewha Woman University, Seoul, Republic of Korea, March 1, 2023 to the present.
Special Advisor on the Arabian Gulf, University of South Carolina, July 1, 2020 to present.
Board of Trustees Member, National University of Science and Technology, Oman, December 2018 to present.
Vice Provost, Director of Global Carolina, University of South Carolina, March 1, 2014 June 30, 2020.
Created Global Carolina, Uof SC's signature internationalization initiative; launched the International Accelerator bridge program for international students; tripled our international undergraduate student enrollment; developed strategic partnerships; increased the number of students studying abroad; produced $20 million revenue last year; finalist for NAFSA's Simon Award each of the last two years; won the APLU Gold Award for Diversity and Inclusion in Internationalization; developed dual and joint degree programs in the Middle East, Latin America, and Asia; led a staff of 70.

Other responsibilities include directing the UofSC Press, assisting the Provost in all aspects of tenure and promotion, advising on and managing campus space issues.

Chair, Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures, University of South Carolina, July 2010 to February 28, 2014.

Led thirty-eight tenure track faculty, twenty-four instructors, and more than fifty graduate teaching assistants from 10 different programs; built a sense of unity and esprit de corps fostering joint research and teaching; created a culture of excellence in research while continuing to focus on high quality language instruction; developed a bottom-up strategic plan for the department and built collaborative structures of consultation and reflection; produced a budget surplus.

Special Adjunct Professor of Comparative Literature, Beijing Language and Cultural University, May 2011 to present.

Professeur Invité de Littérature, Université de Paris 13, 2008.

Carolina Distinguished Professor of Classics and Comparative Literature, University of South Carolina, August 2006 to present.

Visiting Professor, Fakultät für Philologie, Englisches Seminar, Ruhr-Universität Bochum, June to July 2004.

Director of Comparative Literature, University of South Carolina, August 1998 to August 2002; August 2005 to August 2007.

In the 1995 NRC rankings, the University of South Carolina's Comparative Literature Program was ranked 46th out of 46 ranked programs. The University considered shutting down the program and there was a two-year moratorium on admissions. Ultimately, there was a search for an external director and I was hired. In the last NRC rankings, we were ranked 25th and were the 10th ranked public program. We achieved this rise through an emphasis on scholarly excellence and the design of a coherent, up-to-date curriculum.

Associate Professor of Classics, University of South Carolina, August 1998 to August 2002.

Associate Professor of Classics and Director of Comparative Literature, Texas Tech University, August 1996 to August 1998.

Visiting Scholar, Classics Department, University of Texas, spring 1997

Visiting Assistant Professor of Classics, Hamilton College, spring 1996.

Assistant Professor of Classics and Comparative Literature, Texas Tech University, August 1991 to August 1996.

Assistant Professor of Language and Literature, Drury College, August 1989 to August 1991.
