GAL and CASA Training: Lived Experience with Brandi Frazier and a Discussion Panel

Who should attend: Staff, volunteer guardians, and attorneys with the Cass Elias McCarter Guardian ad Litem Program and Richland County CASA

Overview: In his training, offered exclusively for current guardians and attorneys with the Cass Elias McCarter Guardian ad Litem Program and Richland County CASA, participants will hear from Brandi Frazier, a rehabilitated parent who reunified with her minor child. This training will also include a discussion panel with the DSS caseworker, the Chrysalis Center, and the SC GAL Program that worked with Brandi and her child. Time will be allowed for questions and discussion to ensure those who complete the training will have enhanced knowledge to better advocate for the children they serve in their respective cases.

This training will be offered on a virtual platform. The links will be sent to each registrant near the date of the training.

Date: August 22, 2025

Time: 9:00 am to 12:00 pm

We recommend you log in by 8:45 am to ensure attendance is recorded and deal with any technical difficulties you might experience.

Fee: There is no charge for this training.
